

CORPORATION REFORMS EASY

According to Scheme Presented to President Roosevelt by Leading Attorney of Chicago WOULD CONCILIATE STATES RIGHTS MEN

While at the Same Time Giving National Government Power to Enforce Publicity and Other Needed Law Reforms.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Eugene E. Prussing, a well-known Chicago lawyer, for three years president of the Citizens' Association there, called on the president yesterday to present his views on corporate reforms.

The president read and discussed with interest the brief statement which Mr. Prussing submitted. It follows:

"Current reform and anti-trust law amendments and railroad legislation, naturally will claim the first place in congressional action. General corporation reform in its various phases may perhaps be classed second in importance. Long and varied experience in corporation matters leads me to offer these suggestions:

"The first question, that of jurisdiction of the federal government will in each instance be the challenge of the opposition. Successful effort, therefore, must be along the line of the least resistance, that is to say in harmony with the principles of state rights and local government as well as the sentiments based upon these, even if extreme.

"National control of interstate commerce corporations, as distinguished from national incorporation of all or most corporations will be readily granted by most men of both parties.

"Compulsory publicity of accounts, the submission of books, papers and plans to inspection, etc., of government officials will easily be accomplished.

"The new step advised by the association of attorneys general, slightly modified, will be in the right direction, and will be approved by state rights men and federalists alike. The association recommends that the right to 'look' into the affairs of other corporations should be denied to all interstate commerce corporations. It seems to me that the purpose of this, namely, to compel the real owners of a corporation to go business in their own name can be achieved by requiring the corporation owning stock in another, and the corporation in which it owns stock to list such owners and stockholdings respectively in every case with the department of commerce. Thus honest holding companies will be permitted, and yet protected against possible abuse of local taxation or other unjustly discriminating laws. As national banks are now, while the public in turn will have knowledge of whom it is dealing with and can protect itself.

"All Banks to Be 'National.'

"The change of state banks and trust companies to national banks, which can be accomplished by a single amendment of the national banking act, will also be popular and can be along state rights.

"The proposed change is this:

"Give national banks two additional powers and their consequences.

"First—To accept and execute trusts, by complying with the general state laws on that subject, wherever they exist and in the District of Columbia.

"Second—To accept trust, savings and time deposits and to keep separate accounts of the total of these, making proper rules for notices of withdrawal, and allow as small a percentage of reserves as to deposits, and also the making of solid bond and mortgage and other savings bank investments of the funds so received.

"Thus every national bank becomes the full competitor of trust companies, and some the latter will be forced to become national banks.

"Harmonize laws.

"Go at the general corporation problem in a similar manner. Enlist the state rights men on your side. Keep the subject of incorporation and anti-trust control—a state concern; make the local laws harmonize if possible by appointing a commission to investigate the anti-trust subject. Get the best talent: Root, Choate, Dillon, Morawetz and others of that type will be glad to serve for patriotic reasons and a result will be achieved in the form of a code based on principles and experiences suited to our dual government and varied conditions, just as it was in Germany in 1870-1875 in the enactment of laws by Prussia and the other states of the empire, which have served the purpose and stood the test of time.

"I am sending my paper with a request for comments to the members of the American Bar association, and to the great majority of names in the directory of directors, thus reaching thoughtful persons. Immediately in touch with the situation. The replies already received indicate an intelligent, general and critical interest, and no doubt good fruit in the shape of suggestions will result."

At the end of the interview the president said:

"And now, my dear sir, I want to pay you a compliment. I did not expect you to give me a single thing instead of that you have given me several particular suggestions in concrete form, some of which are entirely new. I shall study them with pleasure. I may say you will soon see them reflected somewhere."

WOMAN AND CHILDREN TERRORIZED BY INDIAN

Mrs. Jepson of Sanger, Hides in Field to Escape from Drunken Redman.

SANGER, Nov. 10.—Saturday night an Indian named Jack Stonewall got drunk in Del Rey and on the way into Sanger, stopped at the home of Mrs. Jepson and frightened her and her children so that they ran into a field and hid from him. He was yelling like a madman and when he reached town was arrested after causing considerable excitement on the streets. He was sentenced to ten days in jail this morning. He said he got the liquor from a Mexican in Del Rey.

MISCREANTS GREASE STREET CAR RAILS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—But for the timely discovery by a motorman on an Ostrich Farm car, on the Pacific Electric Railroad, of the greasing of the street car tracks, where they cross the Santa Fe and Salt Lake Railroad tracks in the outskirts of the city, a serious accident might have occurred Saturday evening. The motorman who discovered the grease, said his car came so close to the crossing before he could stop that had a train come along a collision would have been inevitable. It is believed the greasing of the tracks was done by some one who had some grievance against the company or some of its employees.

PREPARE TO MOVE NORTHWEST GRAIN

Bankers of Washington, Idaho and Montana Meet to Discuss the Financial Situation.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 10.—At the meeting of the 161 bankers of the Inland Empire, held in the banquet hall of Davenport's restaurant, for the purpose of discussing the general financial situation and its special relations toward the movement of the vast wheat crop of this section, general confidence was expressed by the 161 representatives of the banks of Washington, Idaho and Montana, who were present in the all-day session.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the situation and to make recommendations to the various banks in the section. The meeting was held at the Davenport restaurant, which is one of the largest and most comfortable in the city.

The speakers at the meeting were: E. T. Coleman, president of the Exchange National Bank, and D. W. Twombly, president of the Old National Bank, both of this city, who represented the special committee among chosen to report on the situation.

"We find that the situation among the country bankers is very satisfactory. All of them having large amounts of loans secured by merchandise, wheat and lumber in transit. As soon as the currency situation is sufficiently relieved the worst of the differences will be over."

"We find that the only way to accumulate credit balances in the principal exchange cities is by the conversion of commodities into cash. This process will require several weeks and perhaps months. To accomplish this on a large scale, will require several weeks and perhaps months on account of limited facilities for transportation."

"The situation all over eastern Washington and northern Idaho is improving and it is only a question of time before there will be a gradual liquidation of the obligations due the banks when they will be enabled to again resume business under normal conditions."

"The country banks seem well supplied with cash resources and the only difficulty they have had in converting grain bills into credits with the coast cities. From reports made to the meeting this difficulty will soon be removed and they will be able to secure cash credit."

The convention was attended by 161 bankers from Washington, Idaho and Montana.

INTERNATIONAL SPIES DISCOVERED AT TOULON

TOULON, Nov. 10.—Five of the ring-leaders of what would appear to be a most important association of international spies, were arrested today by special detectives. The authorities also got a mass of papers and a cursory examination of these documents leads to the belief that the gang for a long time past, has been carrying on an extensive traffic in military and naval secrets. The local officials consider the arrests so important that they have communicated with Premier Clemenceau.

Destructive Raids in Italy.

ROME, Nov. 10.—The train robbers and floods throughout Italy continue. Railroad tracks are being carried away in several places and reports are being received of the destruction of houses and the destruction of cattle. Several human lives have also been lost.

UTILITY CORPORATIONS PUBLIC CORRUPTIONISTS

Francis Heney In Sacramento Address Tells How Herrin Is the Head Master of all California Grafters--Perkins as an Example of a Machine Controlled Statesman.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 10.—When Francis J. Heney called in this city Saturday night, at the ratification of the Lincoln-Roosevelt-Republican League victory, for a five years' war against railroad domination of politics in California he displayed an entirely new bent of mind. Though there never was a dull moment in his speech he was not bitter in his personality. Even in his denunciations of Herrin he gave excuses for the railroad boss, explaining his vast responsibilities in looking after the interests of the gigantic Southern Pacific corporation. He pointed out how bondholders and shareholders were clamoring for him to make good in his management and how those scheming politicians who would hold up the corporation must be fought off by Herrin.

This was the inauguration of Heney's work in the state by assisting the Lincoln-Roosevelt-Republican League and he made it apparent that he aimed at a campaign of education with abuse eliminated, other than to make illustrations of the workings of "the system," a phrase that he has adopted from the magazine authorities. He did not spare United States Senator Perkins and yet did not roast him. He merely spoke of the senator as an example of the operations of the railroad "machine." His words were without vindictive spirit.

Just Attacks the System.

It is evident that Heney has been a close student of the writers. Probably his close association with Lincoln Stephens has influenced him. These authorities do not speak in hatred of the bosses any more. They attack "the system" through which the bosses exist and do not blame the corporation agents so much.

Heney has furthermore taken up the idea of the linking of the public service corporations with vice in their political activities, showing how they are always pulling together in the common design on special privileges. He of course attacks the boss but his purpose is not to hammer them "out of existence; his idea is to educate the people to the true inwardness of politics and thereby arouse them to elect men to represent them and not the corporations. He believes that the direct primary law and enlightenment of the voters, who generally speaking do not understand the reasons for the evil conditions, afford the avenue for retrieving the country, which he now regards as a "mere shell and form of a representative democracy."

Lincoln Stephens preceded Heney on the platform. He declared that "the fight for good government was not a battle but a war that was being waged all over the land. It was a struggle against 'business,' 'big business' and not the best business either." The conditions were such in the country that men elected to represent the people were in reality the representatives of those big businesses that approached government with bribes in hand. The power of the corporations in politics must be broken, he said; if good government was to obtain. His outlook for the future was hopeful, for he believed that the people were beginning to learn and know the sinister effects of their governmental affairs.

The stinging audience of three thousand persons in the audience was stirred to great enthusiasm by the speeches of Stephens and Heney and the commencement of their campaign in California in aid of the Lincoln-Roosevelt-Republican League augured well for the future.

Heney's Address.

Heney's speech was as follows:

"I did not come to Sacramento to ratify anything. I came here to enlist in the war, of which Mr. Stephens told you for five years. You say you are proud because you defeated Tom Fox by 115 votes. I think you people of Sacramento ought to be ashamed of yourselves for electing Clinton L. White mayor by such a majority. I have enlisted tonight in the war for clean government for a period of five years, because if you can defeat Tom Fox by only 115 votes I think it will take five years at least to put him and his kind out of business."

This war in California was declared on August 1, 1907, when the Lincoln-Roosevelt-Republican League was organized. I had fought all the forty-seven years of my life under the Democratic banner, but I enlist tonight under the banner of the Lincoln-Roosevelt-Republican League. You ask me if I am a Republican and I must answer you; you ask me if I am a Democrat and I must say no. I am for what the Lincoln-Roosevelt-Republican League represents. I am for the first article of the League's platform, the removal of the Southern Pacific from political power in California. That's what I stand for. How many of you will enlist for the tonight for the five years' war for clean government? (Great shout of "seven years.")

"I stand for any movement that has that aim. I don't care what name it goes by. I have become educated. I have learned more in the last year than I had learned in all the previous forty-seven years of my life. And I have learned that putting men in jail will accomplish very little. Sending Patrick Calhoun to the penitentiary is not going to fight things. The benefit is what the city of San Francisco, the state of California, the nation and the whole civilized world has learned through the complete exposure of the corrupt corporations govern all the cities of our land, govern our states and our nation."

Honesty of the Common People.

"I believe in the honesty and virtue of the common people and that is why I am in this fight with abounding hope. I believe in a republican form of government because it gives the great right of human liberty. Its aim is the good and the uplifting of humanity."

If it is only dollars that you want, why let's have money right away. A monarchy can probably give you better and more established business conditions. If you only want business, let's have a king and let him rule regardless of human rights and human liberty.

"I recently saw a cartoon that appeared to me. Patrick Heney was depicted as delivering his famous speech, 'Give me money or give me death,' and a crowd of merchants was pulling at his coat tails and crying out: 'You're hurting business, Pat.' So it was with the Tories. They were business men. They thought that the revolution was disturbing business. And against them and the British, Washington was fighting for human liberty. So it was in the Civil War; a strong sentiment grew up in the North against the war—'Why? Because it was hurting business. But the great common people—not the business people—were risking their lives in battle and a million men sacrificed their lives because they would fight for principle."

Shell of Democracy.

"This country is a mere shell and form of a representative democracy. Representative democracy has been wiped out in California and you stand it—stand it smilingly. You do so because you do not understand. You get up a little spirit once in a while, win a little fight for decency and then pay no more attention to it. You are soon back where you were before. You don't understand that it is your system of politics—that's at fault—that you allow public service corporations and vice, linked together in a common aim to secure special privileges to conduct your government for you."

"San Francisco has been no worse than any of the other great cities of the country. Everywhere the identical causes, the identical abuses have been at work as have been exposed in San Francisco. The municipal governments of all our cities have been corrupted by the very same kinds of businesses that dragged San Francisco to the mire."

No Help From Business Men.

When we began the graft prosecutions we pleaded with the business men to help us, to give us evidence of the hoodlums and grafting of the Ruef-Schmitz administration. I belong to almost every social club in the city and I met the business men there. In fact, I am personally acquainted with the bribery—many of them were my friends and some of them were my clients. I have lost that clientele since. Despite my appeals there was not a man among them who would come forward and give us a scintilla of evidence. We had to give up the idea of getting any help from the business men."

"Not a man in the lot felt that he owed a duty to the city that he loved; to tell us a thing he knew would indict Ruef, Schmitz or a supervisor engaged in robbing the poor city as she lay in her ashes. Yet these men considered themselves the best citizens—bankers, merchants and captains of industry."

Why Supervisors "Came Through."

And then it happened that three supervisors were tripped by the taking of some of our money. They were caught with the money on them. Then they were asked to tell all they knew about hoodlums. It took twelve hours to convince them. Appeals to sentiment, to fear, to shame were all of no avail and then the grand jury argument was used and finally they found out that they could tell without giving up the money that they sold out; and it was no worse than the men who would not tell us anything for fear of having to give up their franchise. So the story of San Francisco's corruption was told. Gallagher, who dealt with Ruef, came through. Gallagher, who had been a candidate at the Santa Cruz convention for the "Appellate" bench, let a cog slipped in Herrin's machine. Herrin did spare us that once but how many other Gallagher slipped through. I don't know.

We broke the power of Ruef and I now enlist in this five years' war to wipe William C. Herrin off the political map of California as we wiped Ruef off the state in San Francisco.

New York Influence.

But let me tell you some more about the business men of San Francisco. After Ruef had confessed and Schmitz had been convicted and when we turned our attention to the captains of industry the New York banks began to pull the strings on the San Francisco banks. Then the local bankers sent for our grand jury and told them that they had better go slow, that any further indictments would hurt business. All sorts of influences were brought to bear but our grand jury could not be swayed from justice. But on them was laid the problem that they were hurting business.

This country must be saved for the people. We must have government for the people and by the people and not by the public service corporations and vice. We must go after such business men if this nation is to endure. Such business men are the cause of all our misgovernment and it is they whom we must correct. The corporations and vice go hand in hand for both have a common purpose in the obtaining of special privileges. They work together in the primaries, in the conventions and at the elections.

The vote in Sacramento's tenderloin was three to one against White. I haven't been here and don't know your political conditions but I will wager my life that your public service corporations contributed funds to Tom Fox for him to spend in the tenderloin. (Cry of "You're right.")

Stop Discriminatory Power.

The one remedy to stop hoodlums is to have the granting of special privileges controlled directly by legislation and removed from the discretionary power of boards or supervisors or bodies of men. Our officials must be put further beyond the temptation of bribing.

The corporations control the political parties for no other purpose than to make money and they furnish the money with which to bribe about the election of men that they want. They select the most respectable man that they can find who will take orders for them. The higher the type of man that can find who will do their bidding the quicker they seize upon. Don't you see that the more respectable the standing of a man in his community the easier it is to deceive the people.

All the bosses in California, Tom Fox, Jim Gillis and all of them—all representatives of vice and the public service corporations—if rolled together in California would be just William C. Herrin. And so the railroad gives rates, fixes rates and fixes its own taxes—it operates the machinery of government just as it desires when its interests are affected. How easily Herrin has fooled the people with his railroad commissions. They don't represent the people at all; they represent the railroad.

In the campaign last year Herrin and Ruef met in a back room in San Francisco and the railroad agreed to pay Boss Ruef $14,000 for the delegation that was to go to the Santa Cruz convention. There is this justification for Herrin that he has vast property interests to look after and protect, with bondholders and stockholders insisting that he shall make good, no matter how.

You have Boss Richardson in Sacramento helping out Herrin here. You ask if Herrin is fighting Herrin—how is it that Roosevelt appointed Richardson postmaster? That is because the president's hands are tied by senatorial courtesy. If one senator objects to a nomination then all senators, through courtesy, are opposed to it. The delegation from your state makes the selection and the president is in the position of being forced to appoint him. That's why Robert T. Devlin is United States District Attorney; there is a suspicion abroad that he is close to Herrin. And there is Herrin and Herrin is here. In fact, I saw them together a short time ago and there was no sign of enmity between them.

When Ruef held me before his grand jury two years ago to prove my assertion in a campaign speech that he was a crook, Senator Perkins testified that he knew Ruef as a man of fine character and one who wouldn't do anything that he wouldn't do with him. Why did Perkins give Ruef a "certificate of character?" Ruef was a crook, knew that Ruef had handled Herrin's sack and controlled legislators. It was because Perkins didn't care so long as the votes of those legislators were for Perkins for United States senator. Perkins wanted to keep the support of the San Francisco legislative representatives.

Now I am not attacking Perkins but I am attacking the system of our politics. It is unfortunate for Perkins that I must cite him as an illustration.

In Oregon we had a crooked United States District Attorney removed and W. C. Herrin, an able honest young man appointed by the president. Three times President Roosevelt has sent the appointment to the Senate but it has never been confirmed. Senator Fulton of Oregon, Senator Foraker and other representatives in the United States senate of public service corporations and vice have blocked the appointment. Fulton has a fellow feeling for the men prosecuted for timber frauds that makes him wondrous kind. I spent six weeks in Washington trying to get the appointment confirmed but it was impossible to induce the committee to take it up. The power of the public service corporations and vice was too great—I had almost succeeded when the earthquake happened, my immediate return to San Francisco and the moment I left the matter was dropped.

Isn't it time to wake up? You are slaves. I tell you that you are slaves of the public service corporations. Let us now begin a campaign to wipe Herrin off the political map in California.

One way to remedy the evils that beset us is the direct primary, where you can go to the primaries and say what you want. Clinton L. White to be your candidate for mayor. We eliminate the boss. The scheme has been tried in Oregon and it has succeeded admirably.

When I went to Oregon the boss was the United States marshal. I had him removed because he would not cooperate with me in the timber prosecutions. That boss is today retired, he is in private business and living a far more useful career. The direct primary put him out of politics.

Under the present order of things we are robbed of our votes at the primaries and in the conventions because the bosses rule and they represent the corporations and the tenderloin.

They say Herrin was not badly hurt by his defeat in Sacramento and San Francisco. Well, I saw him the other day. He reminded me of the man in the railroad grove who got his trousers on rear foremost. Was he hurt? No, he didn't feel hurt, he said, but after surveying his nether limbs he declared: "I seem to be badly twisted though."

San Francisco and San Francisco have made Herrin look badly twisted and we want to keep on twisting him.

TROUSSEAU COSTS NEARLY HALF MILLION

Wedding Clothes of Princess Marie Bonaparte is on Exhibition at Paris.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Society is in ecstasies over the superb trousseau of Princess Marie Bonaparte, which has cost $325,000. Of this sum the fifty key lingerie alone cost $75,000. The trousseau has been on exhibition for a week and Paris has rolled its eyes heavenward and talked itself almost breathless. Together with the gowns were exhibited some of the Princess's jewels.

The coveted order for making the gowns fell to the lot of a new firm in a very few years has made a reputation for the beauty of its designs and the finish of its creations. Naturally, the other established firms of dressmakers are justly disappointed. The value of the orders given to this one firm alone is $100,000.

Several of the Princess's trousseau frocks are in Empire style, and one very striking evening dress is in a soft shade of electric blue, and is very fine voile de soie. It has a long tulle or overdress, falling from a high waistband and finished with a deep border of embroidery, carried out in long bands of dark blue and gold. The small Empire corsage consists mostly of very handsome Venetian lace, ending in points on either side of the bust, showing a high-draped bodice sash in two tones of soft blue satin.

IN DANGER OF GOING DRY

San Francisco Faces a Shortage of Water Unless Something Is Done Very Quickly.

THE HETCH-HETCHY PROJECT FAVORED

But Consent of the National Government Has Not Yet Been Obtained Because of the Eastern Opposition.

(Special to Republican.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—One of the big problems that the new municipal administration will have to grapple with is that of a water supply. Something must be done, and that at once, if San Francisco is not to go dry. The present supply cannot stand much more demand upon it and the city has not much more to grow until there will be a shortage. Whether or not the municipality shall take up a project of its own and where the water is to be obtained are among the questions yet to be determined.

The Hetch-Hetchy project has enjoyed much favor with the citizens. The project has more very generally obtained from the United States government for the tapping of the stream. There are also the rights of the Stanislaus irrigators to deal with. While a strong sentiment has been built up in California agreeable to the invasion of the national park to divert the pure mountain water for the metropolitan to drink and bathe in, the East is by no means unanimous.

In an editorial dealing with the conservation of the national parks, the Century magazine for November says: "That what has been gained must be vigorously and vigilantly defended is evident, from the scheme to draw the future water supply of San Francisco from the region of the Sierra. This was inevitable, and against the general idea there can be no argument. The objectionableness of the plan suggested is that, with a large choice of streams for the supply, the source selected has been the wonderful Tuolumne river, both the upper reaches near the beautiful Meadows and the lower stretches in the Hetch-Hetchy region, which in its impressiveness is second only to the Yosemite itself. The fact that the same waters further down or other waters to the north are available for the purpose implies some disingenuous aspect of this wanton invasion of the great Yosemite National Park. It is much to be hoped that the administration will not count on this needless diversion of the park from its proper enjoyment. A project which, by the way, is strongly opposed by the practical authority on the Sierra, namely, John Muir, the great naturalist, John Muir, once, led commercialism into the park and there is no knowing what savages it will commit in the holy name of 'franchise.'"

AGUINALDO TALKS OF TAFT'S VISIT

Says His Message from United States Has Been Welcomed by People of the Islands.

MANILA, Nov. 10.—A feature of the visit of Secretary of War Taft to Manila was the presence of Aguinaldo at several of the functions, for the first time since his capture. Discussing the probable results of the visit of Mr. Taft to Manila, with a representative of the Associated Press, he said:

"It is my belief that the benefits to follow the visit to the people of the Philippines will be greater than they can recognize at the present time. I am at present unable to form an opinion of the possible future advantages but am confident that it has done good."

"The inauguration of the assembly has been a long way to cement the friendship of the people with the people of the United States. As a fulfillment of a solemn promise, which many expected would not be fulfilled, the Secretary of War did not bring independence for my people in his pocket but he brought the means of attaining it. He told us how we can get it. The Philippines are thankful for the information and pleased at what the assembly has done, especially in the interests of legislation, education and agriculture."

The president of the assembly, Osmeña, considers that the most important result of the visit has been the strengthening of feeling between the American and the Philippine people upon the assembly as having been the greatest thing done yet. He is confident that much more has been accomplished than appears on the surface.

Commissioner Macaraeg states that Taft has demonstrated that the promises of the United States are to be fulfilled and has showed himself the friend of the whole people."

Starvation Site At Loaded Tables

You Can Lead a Dyspeptic to the Table,
but You Cannot Make Him Eat.

There comes a time in the lives of a great many men and women when even a sizzling steak ceases to be poetry. It becomes a protest. The appetite becomes fickle and fickle. Nothing on the bill of fare can coax it.

The appetite is there and yet it isn't. This makes eating a mere matter of machinery—the mouth doesn't water. The stomach has been worked overtime, and the body and the brain are paying the penalty.

There are thousands of people in every station of life who are walking the earth with a Man Gains the Whole World— and Lose His Appetite.

Today with dyspeptic stomachs. They wear a dejected, forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one, their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag.

Everything on the table may look delicious, but nothing will be tempting. If you have never felt bloated after eating and imagined it was your food that killed you; if you have felt your food lie "like a lump of lead" on your stomach; if you have had a bad, sour breath, difficulty in breathing after a meal, indigestion, heartburn, burning sensations, heartburn, brash, or gas on the stomach, make up your mind you have dyspepsia.

And the chances are you have had it a long time.

Your stomach is overworked, abused, fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak, the muscles of the stomach are atrophied, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes in and do the digesting, and let your stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do that very thing. They contain a most powerful ingredient which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, cures dyspepsia, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, constipation, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juice, and do two-thirds of what the stomach would do to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest, and a chance to get right again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart and then over your whole body. You'll feel rosy and sweet. That's the object. You can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere, or write for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 1501 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

MODESTO CANNERY IS ASSURED BIG SUCCESS

Only Two Thousand Dollars Is Needed for Budget.

Movement on Foot to Improve Waterways Tributary to the Tuolumne River.

MODESTO, Nov. 10.—There is everywhere, throughout this community, and far beyond, a feeling of great satisfaction that Modesto is to have a cannery and packing house. And all credit is due the soliciting committee for their energy and persistence in raising the necessary money. The banks and some public spirited citizens headed the list with $1000 each, the merchants and professional men following in proportion.

Producers who expect to be patrons of the enterprise have also taken shares and still have an opportunity as nearly a couple of thousand dollars are yet needed to round out the $25,000. Shares are $100 each. The co-operative plan of but one share and one vote for the individual was suggested and preferred by some. But it would have taken too long to raise the necessary capital in such small amounts. Outside capital was not sought as it was believed better to make it a local affair.

This movement has again demonstrated the advantage of having a good, live board of trade in the community. It was this body that started the creamery about three years ago, and which has proved a great boon to owners of cows and alfalfa and that has given a great stimulus to the dairy industry in the valley.

The individuals who have raised Stanislaus from twelve to thirty place in that industry in the state. The directors of the new cannery and packing house company have been well chosen. J. R. Broughton is mayor of the city; J. W. Davidson, farmer, is supervisor; C. R. Tilson, head of a large lumber concern; George P. Schaefer, a leading merchant; W. H. High, president of Farmers' and Merchants' bank; S. C. Gilman, an enterprising and successful farmer, also a director of the Modesto irrigation district.

The prospect for the coming of another railroad from Stockton, down the valley brings some assurance that they have positive assurance of the fact.

Time was when the Tuolumne river as well as the San Joaquin carried quite a tonnage of freight such as grain, hay, wood, vegetables and live stock. This was not only a great convenience but a direct and indirect saving. The cost was cheaper than by railroad and water carriage competition always keeps railroad freight down to a reasonable figure. Under the auspices of the California Promotion Committee, a notable meeting is to be held in San Francisco on November 11th, at which the Congressmen and many others are expected to be present, with a view to securing a larger appropriation from Congress for the improvement of California waterways. J. W. Webb, secretary of the Stanislaus board of trade, has been selected to speak for the interests of this section. He is a San Joaquin valley enthusiast.

The Boys' Debating club of the Modesto High school met on Friday night and with the hearty concurrence of the faculty, decided to change the society into a high school senate, to be modeled after the country's highest legislative body. The necessary committee to effect the change were appointed. Now let Fresno High senate look out for its laurels.

S. F. Cowan, former trustee of Fresno, and wife were "looking around" Modesto yesterday. That gentleman highly complimented Mayor Broughton on the good street work so extensively and so well done during the past months. And this is but the beginning of the good work. Next season will see much more done on the same lines. The streets on the business blocks being finished, the alleys are now being paved with crushed rock and asphalt.

The Women's Improvement club is active in every good work. And they are exceedingly practical. They took $100 shares in the new cannery project. In conjunction with the newly organized Women's Club of Belfast school district they will work for the bringing in of the electric road. Then they will soon start tree planting by individuals and around their homes, and by the club and the public along the highways.

Never in the history of Stanislaus county have there been so many home seekers and investors and letters of inquiry coming. One day requests for descriptive literature and information came from Alaska, Alabama and intermediate points.

TULARE CLAIMS GAME PLAYED WITH SELMA

Insist That Umpire Had No
Ground for Action.

Funeral of Annie Wagner Is Attended by Large Crowd at Tulare.

TULARE, Nov. 10.—The score of the football game played yesterday at Selma, as announced in today's Republic, is not verified by the Tulare team, who claim the game by a score of 5 to 2. The story the boys tell, which is corroborated by school officials who attended the game, is to the effect that Jordan King was carrying the game at the time of the disagreement, which by the way was seven minutes before the close of the second half, was wholly justified by reason of his absolute lack of knowledge of the rules of the game and his persistent leaning to the Selma team in all decisions. When he inflicted a five-yard penalty on Tulare for off side play, the boys were lined up, but the ball was not yet in play and no line could be imposed. Mr. Kyle, as referee, called Mr. Gordon's attention to this rule, but the latter insisted and ordered them to play; the referee blew his whistle calling the game and play was stopped with the score 5 to 2 in Tulare's favor. The umpire had no authority whatever to continue the game and had it been played as a league game would undoubtedly be awarded Tulare. The local team never had even one slight dispute in the game played here with Dinuba recently, in which Scott of Visalia umpired, nor the hotly contested game with Visalia last year which decided the championship. The boys do not attach any blame to the Selma players, although the treatment from attendants at the game was not so considerate; some person going so far as to throw a second ball in the field during a play, to confuse the local players, while a number of over-enthusiastic patrons of the Selma club shook their fists under referee Kyle's nose and threatened to whip him.

The local players held the idea of playing at Fresno next Saturday, where they know they will be treated fairly in or out of the game, win or lose.

The funeral of Annie Wagner, the 13-year-old suicide, took place in Tulare today in the presence of a very large concourse of curious people.

That young James will go wholly unpunished for his part of the girl's undoing is hardly possible, though no action has as yet been taken against him.

The Tulare firemen are getting ready for their annual New Year's ball. This is undoubtedly the most popular annual social event, the attendance large and the enjoyment great. The president of the firemen appointed a strong committee in the persons of Marshall Court Smith, R. D. Helm, W. J. Dunlap, Harry Finner and H. E. Patterson. The dance will be held in the pavilion as usual, where the supper will also be served.

Thendore Lee brought another herd of forty-three Holstein cattle to Tulare yesterday. This gives Mr. Lee a herd of seventy-five milk cows which he milks for cream.

BRUNSWICKS DEFEATED BY ANGLO-AMERICANS

Score 2 to 0—Visitors Secured Eleven
Hits—Game Was Exciting for the Fans.

The Anglo-American Croquet base ball team, of San Francisco, yesterday defeated the Fresno Brunswicks by a score of 2 to 0, in the first game of the season between a local aggregation and an outside nine. The local boys prevented more runs at several places by fast and heady work in crucial positions. In general points of play, the visitors had the better pitcher, while the Brunswicks some times used four hitters at sticking the leather out. The game was fast in most of the play, the innings going off one-two-three, as fast as the men came to bat.

A good crowd was in attendance about the largest which has turned out this season. It was not a good game to make the fans rabid, taken as a whole, since the local boys some plays were made during the game, by both sides, which called forth wild applause, while some of the best stunts pulled off by the local men set the gods in the bleachers to howling and exciting ecstatic war-dances all over the benches.

Considering the number of hits made, the base-running and generalship of the men on bases was poor. The Anglo-American trotted out eleven sizzling hot hits, and brought only two men around the bases for a tally. Brunswicks piled out three hits, and brought home not a man.

Warren and Muhlen, of the Anglo-Americans, were the star batters of the day, the former making three hits and a run, while the latter made two hits. Eight of the ten men put in by the visitors during the game made hits. Of the Brunswicks, Cardwell, Duncan and Milt Maut made hits.

Muhlen, pitcher for the visitors, was the star of their team. He showed good speed and control, coupled with a wide and tricky curve which he used at will. His fielding and batting were also exceptionally good. In the outfield, Fresno showed general superiority, as they did also in base stealing and in covering their plates.

The opponents lined up in the following batting order:

Anglo-Americans Fresno.
Raphael C. Rubin
Muhlen 1st B. I. Tufts
Diehl 2nd B. Cartwright
O'Neill 3rd B. M. Maut
Warren 3rd B. Giger
Grinnell R. P. Christensen
Tayler P. Cannon
O'Connor S. Sinton
Owens S. Sinton
J. E. Wilson of Washington, D. C., took Fresno's place at right field after the seventh, when the latter dropped an easy one. Calhoun batted for I. Tufts in the ninth, and made two bases on long chances. On the third base, however, he was tagged.

The score was:

Anglo-Americans 2 1 1
Brunswicks 0 0 0

It is probable that no return game with the Anglo-Americans can be obtained for some time. It is said that bad weather in San Francisco precludes the possibility of a large crowd at this time of the year making it risky to try a game until March at least. For this reason no return match seems very likely before that time, if it ever comes.

State League Baseball.
STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 10.—In a fast twelve inning game today Stockton won from Sacramento by a score of 1 to 0. J. McInnis made the winning run coming in from third on the throw after Bill Moriarty's drive was pulled down in center. This closes the season's schedule here, though there will be a post-season series between Stockton and Sacramento, best 4 in 7, for $1000 a side. Captain Graham protested today's game because a Beach ball was used. Score: R. H. E. Stockton 1 0 0 Sacramento 0 0 0 Batteries—Henderson and Hockett; Haim and Graham. Umpire—Moore.

PIANOS OF QUALITY

There is as much difference in pianos and piano values as there is between solid silver and plated silver. An instrument may look well externally but its real worth and test is in its wearing qualities. A piano with a reputation for superior excellence must have secured such reputation purely on merit. And when you are lacking in the necessary experience and knowledge to enable you to distinguish a good piano from an inferior one, there is no better guide for the selection of a good piano than the reputation of an instrument enjoys and the length of time such reputation has been established. All pianos we have in stock are in each and every instance pianos with a gilt edge reputation. We can "show you" in all cases and we can convince you that a piano investment made with us will prove satisfactory to the end.

Called One Cause of Slow Arrival East.

Demand on Early Arrivals Affected—Much Stuff Going Out from Here.

A prominent packer said last night that there was not much in the way of new features to report on the packing situation; but that he was running off lots of goods just at this time. It seems that the effects of the banking conditions have not been very noticeably felt here except in the matter of new business, which is said to be retarded to some extent by the absence of large amounts of cash. The packing houses are running full with the deliveries about in on contracts, and a great deal of the finished product going out of the yards.

However, the flurry in finance has had its effect on the business, as shown by mail advices from New York, in which this question is covered. The advices say: "One cause of the delay in shipments from the coast, next in importance to the scarcity of cars, is said to be the attitude of the banks there. While ready to furnish enough money to pay for immediate operating expenses, the California banks are disinclined to advance the entire amount required to get a car of raisins to its destination. The uncertainty as to payment of drafts against bills of lading at this end impels them to cut down the accommodation usually given to raising shippers. They are, however, willing to guarantee payment to the grower as soon as drafts are paid here and freely extend to the packer the privilege of referring grower to them. This relieves the packer of the necessity of stalling with the grower in ad-

MONEY CONDITION AFFECTS DELIVERY

Some of the competition in the cold storage line, which was expected to affect the sales of emperor grapes, especially in the better grades, seems to have been removed. A cable received by the New York Fruit Exchange from Alameda stated that shipments of grapes have stopped on account of the ruinous prices at this end.

CONDITION IN THE ORANGE MARKET GOOD

Last Valencia Just Out—Early Navels from This Section Have Good Field.

Oranges for early delivery, grown in this section, should command good prices now, on account of the bareness of the Eastern markets.

There is a good demand for oranges, and anything offered in desirable quality and condition finds ready sale. California Valencia lates, which has been supplying the demand for the best fruit, are about done. One car was offered on Monday, and it brought high prices, up to $10.37½ being paid for best stock. Mexican oranges which come next to the California in sweetness, were in active demand, and though some of the stock offered in New York on Monday last showed decay, the prices realized were comparatively high, the range on the most desirable sizes being from $4.25 to $4.75 a box. In the Porto Ricoes offered a lack of color was observed and there was some decay. On these the range was from about $1.50 to $1.65. Floridians are arriving in New York green and are going into warm rooms to be colored, after which they bring $2.50 to $4.00.

ORDER ALL BUYING IN PRUNES STOPPED

Money Stringency Gives as Reason for Move in Anderson Prune Belt.

A move, which it is to be hoped will not be duplicated here, has been made in prunes. Fruit buyers in the Anderson prune belt in Shasta county received telegraphic orders last week to cease purchasing fruit regardless of prices. The reason for these orders is said to be the money stringency, as buyers are unable to finance their purchases. Very little fruit remains unsold in Shasta county, however.

THE REASON

The Eyes of the Schoolteacher

must be here, there, everywhere. She must read the text-book, with its tiny printed annotations; she must examine the irregular handwriting and decipher the blackboard illegibility of the child student. At the same time her eyes must travel to every part of the classroom and keep observant supervision over the movements of her charges. And if she wears Kryptoks all this is easy, for Kryptoks give far-and-away vision in one pair of handsome glasses.

Kryptoks do more with two pairs of glasses; they replace the old-style lens with the fine showing across it; they have no pieces pasted upon them and have no cement in their construction. Kryptoks for a person of fifty are indistinguishable from the glasses of a person of twenty. Only from

FAVORED SHIPPERS FORM A BUREAU

How Southern Pacific Is Trying to Head Off Movement to Recover Rebate Damages.

Motivated by the threats made by the independent shippers at the time of the recent exposure by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane, which showed that the road had been granting illegal rebates, says the San Francisco Call, the Southern Pacific has been steadily at work on the formation of the "traffic bureau of trade and commerce," to be used as a tool to nullify the efforts of the independents to recover damages which they allege they have suffered because of the road's action in granting special rates to a favored few.

In substance the move is a statement made by Isidor Jacobs, president of the California chamber of commerce and a leader of the Good Government league, who largely instrumental in electing Mayor Taylor. It was called out by the unofficial announcement of C. S. Laumister, president of the merchants' exchange, regarding the traffic bureau, its aims and the methods which it is proposed to have the Laumister-Southern Pacific association follow.

Jacobs is at the head of the movement, made up of independent shippers, in which nearly 500 prominent merchants who have not bowed their knees to the railroad company or received favors from its hands have joined. While Jacobs refused yesterday to state fully what his plans were he asserted that he had been in constant communication with Isidor Laumister, president of the Manufacturers and Producers' association, and that following a consultation with the attorney next Tuesday he would be in a position to say with authority just what steps would begin the campaign for better transit conditions throughout the state.

Laumister appointed among others on his general committee: R. P. Nichols, of the firm of Welch and Co., which is a part of the Hawaiian Sugar company; R. R. Lillienfeld, head of the firm of that name and the senior member of the Oils & McCallister; A. G. Scott, of the firm of Miller, Stoss & Scott, which was practically absorbed by the Pacific hardware and steel company. According to the Jacobs organization none of these men have ever been known to shy at the sound of a whistle of a locomotive, and while Laumister, the head of the whole movement, was a member of the state railroad commission the railroad had no cause to worry over any possible harm which might come from the governmental body.

Exposure Starts Ball.
The formation of the body was begun immediately after the exposure of the illegal methods of the railroad at the beginning of last month, and with the chorus of protests which came from the independent shippers who had for years been laboring in vain to meet the competition of the favored few who had the trade of the state in their grip through the aid given them by the railroad.

With the political campaign the situation became even clearer. It will be remembered that Laumister made a statement to the effect that he was in favor of Daniel A. Ryan for mayor and that the entire exchange agreed with his political views. A straw vote subsequently showed Laumister to have been wrong in this latter surmise, but he stuck to his advocacy of Ryan, despite the repeated verbal attacks which the republican candidate made on the Southern Pacific.

"I have been waiting merely for the close of the campaign for mayor to end before taking up this other work," said Jacobs to a reporter yesterday. "The Political Promotion Committee is behind me in this business and nearly 500 business men representing the lumber, milling, agricultural, mercantile and service industries have come into line and are working heart and soul for their own safety, which means the safety of the state. For years the railroad has owned California. We mean to see if it can not be relegated to its own place.

Will Hold Conference.
On Tuesday several of the leaders in this movement, of whom I am only one, are to meet at Isidor Jacobs' home and talk the situation over with him. We have already been busy in the collection of evidence throughout the state to substantiate our claims when the time comes.

The association has many branches in the various districts which have suffered from the unfair treatment of the road and its pets. The feeling in these localities are very bitter and the men who are going into the movement mean to carry out their plans to the end.

"While I have nothing to say regarding the formation of the merchants' exchange bureau of trade and commerce, the formation of the general committee, or rather such of the names as I have heard are on that general committee, speak for themselves. The Pacific hardware and steel company has a traffic manager of its own. For years it has been dealing with the railroad—how well the investigation made by Lane shows only too plainly. Why should they enter a body which means harm to the merchants who lay their golden eggs on the rebate?"

"We want to do away with the switching charges here in San Francisco, which are grossly in excess of what they should be. The payment of demurrage at $1 a car a day by the shipper in case he fails to have the car loaded on time, but which is not paid by the road when it fails to deliver the goods when they are due, is another injustice which we hope to have righted. The settlement of the claims of the business men who have suffered from the extortionate charges of the road while his rival is enjoying the favor of the octopus, is to be our principal aim. We will fight for him in and out of the courts to the end. We will attack the rate that is illegally high and try to lower it."

On the surface the aims of the Laumister organization are very much the same. "We hope to increase the amount of space on the water front for heavy and bulky cargoes and while we do not expect to improve conditions, we hope to accomplish it. Claims against the road by our subscribers will be taken up by us. We want the switching charges reduced in San Francisco. We will employ a traffic manager to look out for such matters," said Laumister yesterday.

THIS WEEK PROMISES TO MAKE BIG CONTEST GAINS

Vote-Getters Will be on Their Mettle for Showing

Monday morning is always a good time to begin some important piece of work. After a much needed Sunday rest or recreation it is always good to be back at work again. After all work is best and more enjoyable and more appreciated.

So with the contestants in the Republican big voting contest. After a Sunday rest they are pitching into the business of campaigning with renewed energy. This may be just your day—your lucky day. If it is, this is the time to begin gathering up those ballots that are going to make you famous on December 21st. It does make one famous to be a winner in a live, creditable competition such as the Republican is conducting. On December 21st the names of the winners will be on the lips of every resident in the San Joaquin valley. Perhaps at some future time you may have occasion to come before the public again and it will be a good thing for you if you have been among the live contestants of the Republican grand voting contest. One never knows what is going to benefit him in the business world. Very often it is the thing least expected that brings you fame and fortune never comes to the undeserving nor to the one who does not strive for the best. The spirit the contestants show in this contest is the spirit that will be known as characteristic of them in future undertakings.

This is an age of industry and push. The fellow that hangs back never wins. If you hang back in your contest work you cannot hope to be a winner. Fortunately this advice is not necessary to the bright active contestants in this race. They have evidently been trained to think that what they want they can get. Judging from the way votes continue to pile up there is some kind of an energetic atmosphere surrounding them.

Miss Beattie Wilkins of Tulare whose picture is shown today is one of the latest entries in the race. She was not in the least discouraged by the handicap. She has had previous experience with the Republican contest work having been one of the successful Portland Fair contestants who enjoyed a trip to the Exposition at the Republican's expense. Miss Wilkins is anxious to get a Hawaiian trip and she is going to see that she gets it. She is one of that city's fairest daughters, pretty and popular, and what Tulare determines to do for its favorites it can do with the best will ever.

Recently in some contest Tulare sent one of its most popular girls to Europe so a Hawaiian trip is not considered too far beyond their reach. Everyone is working with a will for this popular candidate who will be a serious rival to some of the other district six girls who have favorites in the field whom they are anxious to see win.

There is Miss Beattie Brooks of Visalia whose friends have high hopes for her and who is anxious for one of the big prizes. Then Lindsay is making a splendid effort to push to the front Miss Peden whose wide acquaintance makes her a difficult candidate to pass.

Mrs. W. D. Smith of Dinuba holds the best of the district and is every day adding votes to her rapidly swelling count.

YOUNG BOY CHARGED WITH ROBBERY HIS EMPLOYERS

Sixteen-Year-Old Prisoner Weeps When Put Behind Prison Bars.

John R. Souler, a sixteen-year-old boy, was arrested yesterday at Newman by Constable McSwain and lodged in the county jail to answer to the charge of embezzlement. Souler was employed by Hinds Brothers as a collector last week and it is alleged that after working two days he left town with the results of a day's collecting, amounting to about $20. The boy broke down and wept bitterly when put in a cell in the jail, although he had taken his arrest at Newman with the utmost composure.

HIRED HORSE WITHOUT MONEY TO PAY BILL

E. B. Davis, for whom the police have been looking for several days on a warrant charging him with defrauding a livery stable keeper, was arrested by Patrolman Davis yesterday. Frazer is charged by J. H. Kelly, proprietor of the Crescent stables, with hiring a horse and buggy from him last week and refusing to pay for the use of it.

"MAYOR OF TOKIO" IS NOT A GRAFTER

Skitty Bit Is Red Lighthouse on Shore of Comedy Sea.

Audience at Barton Pleased

Last Night with Funny Kearney in Mirthful Role.

"The Mayor of Tokio" is a fun factory and full of laughs as a San Francisco rat is of plague. It is the real article and quite a relief from the general run of piebald aggregations which are on the road selling tickets under false pretenses. Anyway, without giving the idea that we are accepting rebates for saying so, the show pleased the Barton crowd last night, and the lead-head row came away chuckling over the personal remark the Mayor made regarding the lack of hisite adoration at Kildar, viz:

"Sir, this head is a storehouse for original ideas and not a mere loading place for hair."

Try this on your piano! "I know you will have a hit and respect the audience," remarked Kildar, leader of the Kous-shidated Komiques, stranded in Tokio.

"How do you know?" asks the mistress of the wardrobe, who is in a dishing mood.

"I've been selling the tickets, and one man was large and the other looked respectable."

Kearney, the boss actor, corresponds to the position of Mayor Taylor in the recent election—he is the whole show. He also has his laundries in the form of Ivan Orulitch, a name which suggests anything from an unappreciated epidemic to a breakfast food.

There are some pretty good looks in the chorus and they are well rounded in their dancing primer, but they have not yet landed their diploma in the correspondence school of singing. Oh, well, the fun is the thing, and it is fun without silliness which makes you kick the cat in the face after you get home. You wonder why you didn't think of some of those jokes yourself and sell them to the magazines at a dollar a word. The Mayor does it all over again tonight.

DR. J. FOUNT MARTIN ON DEVELOPMENT OF MAN

Dr. J. Fount Martin delivered a lecture in Edgerly hall yesterday afternoon on "The Whence, What, Why and Whether of Man's Historical Development."

Dr. Martin traced the development of man from the earliest ages, taking the stand that the grade of civilization of any epoch is only to be determined by the strictness with which the laws of God are followed in it. He held that the prevalence of graft and the low standard of business morality of the present day are directly due to atheism.

MURDER AND SUICIDE; AN OAKLAND TRAGEDY

Car Conductor Shoots Young Wife Who Refused to End an Extramarital.

OAKLAND, Nov. 10.—Murder and suicide occurred in this city at 4 o'clock this afternoon when J. C. Ehlers, a street car conductor, caught out his child wife at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Angela Thomas, and failing to effect reconciliation, shot her through the heart and then turned the weapon upon himself, sending a bullet into his brain, causing instant death. A child ten months old survives the parents. Ehlers and his wife had been estranged for several months. Mrs. Ehlers returned to live with her parents. Ehlers called at the Thomas home and inquired for his wife. Together they walked to a room in the rear of the house, Ehlers locking the door. The next moment the family heard pistol shots. The door was broken open and the bodies found side by side on the floor.

Mrs. Ehlers was 15 years old, and her husband was 23.

SKELETON IDENTIFIED AS THAT OF MAN LOST EIGHTEEN YEARS AGO

REDDING, Nov. 10.—The human skeleton found Thursday by state surveyors on a cliff four miles below North Park, Trinity county, has been identified not only as that of a man named Jones who perished December 21, 1889. His first name has been forgotten in the lapse of years. He left his wife and eight children in Nelson, Butte county. Jones left Junction City in a boat to go down Trinity river and was never heard from, though the boat was found later tied to the shore. His body was found on the trail high above the river. The skeleton was found 150 feet down the precipice from where the gun was found almost eighteen years ago.

HUSBAND, CRAZED WITH JEALOUSY, STABS FRIEND

William Atwater Averages Insult to Wife by Pugilist.

Because his victim attacked his wife, William Atwater, an employee of the Commercial Transfer company, last night, shortly after 10 o'clock, in his own house, stabbed James Dalton, a pugilist, in the employ of Madary's Planing Mill. He then rushed out, under the impression that he had slain his victim, and entering the New Corner Saloon, exhibited the knife with which he had done the crime, and wildly declared that he would plunge it into his own heart. Dalton and from the Atwater house, where the deed was done, and started in search of a doctor. He was found at Jerry Ryan's corner, by Attorney A. E. Snow, in an exhausted condition and carried to the Armory Stables. He will recover, unless complications set in, the knife having entered his left shoulder too high to strike the lung.

"I did it to protect my home," said Atwater last night, after he was in custody. "I think that I was justified in doing as I did. I told him that I intended to kill him when I struck the blow. My wife is innocent. The man was the stronger, and no woman could have resisted."

"The Atwaters live at 1228 Inyo street. Last night, they were having a little evening at home, serving beer and tannies. Dalton and Ray, a pugilist, who room together at the Atwater home, a Mrs. Smith, who lives at 761 J street, and Atwater and his wife were present. Atwater denies that any of them were drunk, though Dalton appeared to be in a somewhat intoxicated condition when he was found. Shortly before the stabbing affray, Atwater took a bucket, and started for the New Corner Saloon to get some beer. As he passed the window of the room in which the others were collected, he saw Dalton, he says, forcibly take Mrs. Atwater in his arms, the woman all the time objecting strenuously.

"That was enough for me," said Atwater. "I went into the house, and found Dalton in the dining room, and put his hands over his face when he saw me. That showed he knew he was in the wrong."

Atwater proceeded to hit Dalton, and the latter fought back, saying all the time that he wished the other to wait until he could explain. Atwater got the worst of the encounter with the pugilist. Finally, in their struggle, they fought into the pantry. Here, Atwater got his man into the corner.

"Jim," he said, "I have sworn that I would kill any man who would mistreat my wife. With that he plunged his pocket knife toward the other's heart, striking him. Then, he advised his victim to go to a doctor, saying, 'I've knifed you, and I'll make good his escape.'"

He was in an almost frenzied condition. He saw his wife leave the place, but paid little attention at the time. Instead he went to the New Corner. There he flourished the knife wildly, threatening to end his own life by plunging it into his heart. Street Superintendent W. H. Spencer was in the place, and attempted to restrain the man. Finally Atwater came out with the whole miserable story. Then Spencer told him that any man might have done the same under the circumstances and there was no need of flying from anything. Instead, Spencer said he should go home to his little children.

VOLIVA OBTAINS MEXICAN LOCATION

Valuable Land as Site of a New Dwellings Colony to the Far South.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Wilbur Glenn Voliva, the self-appointed leader of Zion, who has been deposed by his people and the Federal courts, will lead those who followed him out of Zion to Laguna, N. M., where his agents have secured a contract for 7000 acres. As rapidly as they can dispose of their property here the Volivians will depart for the Southwest. It is hoped to settle the 2000 families there within two years and begin a model city.

The tract contains marble, iron, copper, zinc, lime, lumber and clay in large quantities. The full extent of the wealth of the tract is not known. Primarily the colony will devote itself to agriculture but it is the intention to build up a new Zion, so there will be employment of diversified nature for all. Twenty families will start for the new home at once. Voliva intends to establish factories, stores and newspapers, and the city is to be self-governing.

ANTICLERICALS WIN AT ROME

As Defeat Was Inevitable, the Vatican Partisans Withdrew from Contest Before the Vote

ROME, Nov. 10.—General municipal elections were held in this city today and it is being declared throughout Rome tonight that the anti-clericals have gained their greatest victory since the fall of the church from temporal power.

Only municipal offices were filled but the election assumed a distinct political character. Their importance were not only local but extended all over Italy. The contest came as a conclusion to the anti-clerical campaign which has been beginning principally with the present pontificate, for the clericals were then allowed for the first time to participate in the political life of the country.

There was a reactionary movement among the anti-clerical element; some of them swung over from the conservatives to the socialists and the municipal elections in Rome were chosen as the battlefield. Defeat being inevitable, the clericals for the first time since 1870 withdrew from the field and as a result the anti-clericals' victory was complete and without precedent. The Vatican organs maintained that the abstention of the clerical voters was nothing more than a matter of tactics.

THREE BOYS SHOT IN GUN ACCIDENT

One Is Killed and Another Frightfully Injured by Discharge of Weapon.

YREKA, Nov. 10.—William Adams, 13 years old, was killed, and Harold Adams, aged 12, and Benjamin Martin, aged 15, were wounded yesterday by the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

The three boys, all residents of Wood, were hunting on the Terwilliger place in Little Shasta valley, eight miles from Gazelle. The boys had two guns between them. Sitting in a row they saw a flock of ducks approaching. Harold Adams drew a gun toward himself, muzzle first. The trigger caught and the gun was discharged. All the boys were taken off. Harold's arm and his face and chest were filled with shot. William Adams was struck in the throat and heart. He died instantly. Benjamin Martin, who was the least injured, was shot in the face and chest.

Cars Run Away.
YREKA, Nov. 10.—Three empty freight cars broke loose today from grade No. 22 on the Oregon side of the Siskiyou mountains. The cars left the track a little below Siskiyou station, tearing up the track. Passenger trains 15 and 13 were delayed six hours.

A nervous person is always at a disadvantage. The steady nerves of the influential, successful, well liked individual, are the envy of the timid, cold skinned person who lacks initiative—and red blood.

Coffee is a common cause of "cold hands and feet," nervous trepidity, etc.

What a delightful change it is to feel the power of warm blood and strong nerves! Stop drinking coffee for a week or 10 days, and drink Postum Food-Coffee as the table beverage.

Make your Postum strong and rich—boil it 15 minutes or longer—then, with good cream and piping hot, it is delicious and wholesome, too. Contains no coffee or other drug (caffeine is the drug in coffee) but only the food elements of clean, roasted wheat and a small amount of molasses.
